We aim to provide students with an enjoyable, quality education experience, and to promote the practice and acceptance of Therapeutic and Remedial Massage Therapy within our community.

Massage students come from a variety of professional backgrounds and personal experiences, yet forge very strong bonds as they harmoniously work together to achieve their study commitments. Students are encouraged to practice their massage skills on a variety of different classmates to become familiar with different body types, and to gain a deeper understanding of individual client needs.

CODE OF PRACTICE

Complaints

Complaints are welcomed as a means of ensuring that we overcome problems encountered by clients, and provide an opportunity to improve the operation and delivery of our training programs.

Where a student has an academic complaint or concern, they should contact their teacher in the first instance, and then fill out a complaint form (available at reception), which is forwarded to the Head of School. A meeting will then be arranged.

Complaints about fellow students should be referred to the teacher or Class Captain in the same way, and a meeting with the Head of School and student will be arranged to address the problem through a mediation process.

In the event of a complaint against the organisation, staff or a student involving a breach of civil law, the complainant should contact the Head of School immediately. If it is not resolved, then it should be referred to the appropriate Government Agency.

An independent third party for handling student complaints will be made available to students if requested or if Massage Schools of Queensland (MSQ) deems it necessary to do so.

Students may nominate a person of their choosing to accompany or represent them in any complaint process.

Our complaint resolution process does not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

MSQ will act upon any complaints found to be substantiated.

Appeals Procedure

Students can appeal against a result for any subject or course within twenty-one (21) days of the issue of results.

Students should be aware that our registration as a training provider is dependent on providing quality training services, having appropriate resources and maintaining assessment procedures which meet the standards established by Australian Quality Training Framework.

We maintain the highest ethical standards in marketing, advertising, administration and delivery of courses. We take great pride in our reputation and assure our clients of our commitment to these standards. In the event of an appeal, the student should contact their teacher and request to fill out an appeal form which is then forwarded to the Head of School. If the appeal is not resolved, it will go before an independent panel so that the student can address his/her issue. A written response to the appeal will be given to the student within 14 days.

EARLY EXIT PRIOR COMPLETION

If the student exits the course at any time prior to the qualification completion, they will not receive a formal testamur. A statement will be created for partial completion.
