

Therapeutic Hawaiian Abdominal Massage

16th November 2024
Saturday 9.00am – 4.00pm

Hawaiian Abdominal Massage focuses on the muscles that make up the abdomen region. Techniques taught will help treat muscle tightness in the abdomen to ease tension, pain, constipation, cramps, indigestion and much more. After an Abdominal Massage you will notice an increase flexibility, decrease of physical pain, and mentally balance within the body.

Students will learn to use strokes as useful bodywork tools using special techniques to bring back balance between the sympathetic and parasympathetic nerves. Our emotions affect our functions of our body, and with the use of breathe, your clients will be wanting this type of massage every time they see you.

* With this course you can earn 10 points towards your CPE .
